- The Israeli Occupation Army manning Al container checkpoint closed the checkpoint in the face of Palestinians and started checking ID cards. This has caused an obstruction to the vehicular movement.
- Israeli Occupation warplanes shelled at a tunnel area east of Gaza city, killing Palestinian citizen; Adel Al-Assa in his sixties.

Israeli Settlers Violence

- Israeli settlers of Givat Olam and Gid'onim outposts attacked and threw stones at a number of International activists and Palestinian shepherds in Yanun south east of Nablus city.

Erection of Israeli checkpoints

- The Israeli Occupation Army set up a sudden checkpoint at the entrance of Al Fawwar refugee camp, Sa'ir and Idhna towns, searched Palestinian cars and checked residents ID cards.

Israeli Military orders

- The Israeli Occupation Army handed out Yehya Saed Abu Odeh Jaber a notification to demolish an agricultural pool he owns in Al Baq'a area east of Hebron city near Qiryat Arba' settlement.

Others

- The residents of Migron signed an agreement according to which they will voluntarily evacuate the West Bank community and relocate to state-owned land on a hill nearby. The deal was signed by Migron's residents and Minister Benny Begin at the community's synagogue. The negotiations on Migron's evacuation were conducted over an 18-month period, but a dispute regarding the demolition of structures in the outpost prevented an agreement. The final deal states that the residents will move to a state-owned land situated about two kilometers from Migron, while the vacant structures will remain intact until the Supreme Court rules on the land's ownership.
