Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Israeli occupation Army (IOA) suppressed a peaceful march that was launched following Dhuhr (noon) prayers towards the Old City OF Hebron in southern West Bank to protest a recent decision by the Israeli army to extend municipal services to Israeli settlers illegally residing there. The IOA fired tear gas canisters at protesters, and prohibited them from approaching the settlements in the city. (Maannews 15 September 2017)

- Israeli occupation Army (IOA) suppressed a march at the entrance of Khirbet Qalqas south of Hebron city. The march was launched to protest the Israeli closure of the village's entrance several years ago. Protesters demanded that the IOA open the gate. The IOA responded by shooting tear gas canisters at the protesters, causing several to suffer from tear gas inhalation. The IOA also detained two Palestinian protesters. (Maannews 15 September 2017)
- Israeli occupation Army (IOA) suppressed a weekly march in the village of Kafr Qaddum in the northern occupied West Bank Governorate of Qalqiliya by shooting rubber-coated steel bullets at protesters. The IOA raided the village and fired rubber-coated steel bullets at the protesters, without causing any injuries. The IOA also installed a military checkpoint at the entrance of the village Friday morning and banned supporters of the march from entering the village. The soldiers also searched vehicles and checked identity cards of locals passing the checkpoint. (Maannews 15 September 2017)
