Israeli Arrests

- Israeli police, conducted a large-scale campaign across occupied Jerusalem, in which they detained seven Palestinians. One of the detainees was identified as Hanadi Halawani, a well-known local activist who has been banned entry into Al-Aqsa Mosque compound on a number of occasions. The detainees were sent to detention and interrogation centers in the city. In addition to Jerusalemite activist and teacher Hanadi Halawani, a number of youth were taken. (IMEMC 23 July 2018)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Dozens of Israeli settlers, under the armed security by Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) stormed the Susiya village in the southern occupied West Bank Governorate of Hebron for the third day this week. The settlers performed Talmudic rituals in the area, and several of them have verbally assaulted the Palestinian residents of the village. While in the village, Israeli settlers were also calling for the displacement of Palestinian residents from their lands. (IMEMC 23 July 2018)
- More than 1,000 Israeli settlers in consecutive groups, stormed the courtyards of Al-Aqsa Mosque under heavy protection by the Israeli occupation Army (IOA), entering it from the Magharba Gate. This follows a night of provocations on the Old City of Jerusalem, by Israeli settlers who raided its streets and carried out Talmudic rituals in front of the gates of Al-Aqsa mosque, especially the Bab al-Qatanin, on the eve of what they call “the destruction of the temple.” Large groups of settlers surrounded the courtyard of Al-Buraq Wall (the western wall of the Al-Aqsa Mosque) for hours, moving to the Al-Qataneen market on Al-Wad Street, and ending at Al-Aqsa Mosque, where they performed rituals from this side, under the strict security measures of the IOA. (IMEMC 23 July 2018)

Expansion of settlements

- The Israeli Planning and Construction Committee approved the establishment of 20 new settlement units in the illegal settlement of “Matassad” that was built on the land of Palestinian citizens to the southeast of Bethlehem, in the occupied West Bank. (IMEMC 23 July 2018)
