Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Safa area in Beit Ummar town, north of Hebron, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank, and attacked Palestinian protesters, causing many to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation, and confiscated two cars. The IOA closed the town's main road, before stopping and searching dozens of cars, and interrogated many Palestinians while inspecting their ID cards. Several Palestinian youngsters protested the invasion, and hurled stones at the IOA who fired many rubber-coated steel bullets and gas bombs. Several Palestinians suffered the effects of teargas inhalation. The IOA also stopped and confiscated two Palestinian cars before withdrawing from the town. (IMEMC 8 June 2019)

Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained a young woman at the Qalandia terminal north of Jerusalem, reportedly for carrying a knife in her purse. The detained woman is from Jenin, in northern West Bank. (IMEMC 8 June 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Palestinian agricultural lands in Sebastia town, north of the northern West Bank city of Nablus, and forced the farmers out. The IOA threatened to confiscate the farmers' agricultural tools if they do not leave their lands, due to their proximity to the Shavei Shomron settlement. (IMEMC 8 June 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) assaulted a civilian guard of the Al-Aqsa Mosque, in occupied East Jerusalem, and detained him. The assaulted Palestinian was identified as Mohannad Edrees, causing various cuts and bruises, before detaining him. He was taken prisoner in the eastern area of Bab ar-Rahma mosque in Al-Aqsa, after he intercepted several settlers and officers who entered the mosque without removing their shoes, in violation of Muslim traditions. The guard is a former political prisoner, who was detained and imprisoned in various previous invasions into the holy site, during provocative tours by IOA, officers and settlers. (IMEMC 8 June 2019)

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained five Palestinians, including a young woman, from their homes in Jabal al-Mokabber neighborhood, southeast of occupied East Jerusalem. The IOA invaded and ransacked many homes in Jabal al-Mokabber, before detaining Aseel Oweisat, Karam Abdo, Mohammad Ata 'Oweisat, Ata 'Oweisat and Mousa Abdo. The IOA also attacked Palestinians, protesting the invasion, by firing rubber-coated steel bullets and concussion grenades at them. (IMEMC 8 June 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- For the third consecutive day, Israeli settlers burnt more than 100 olive trees, owned by a Palestinian family in al- Mughayyir Palestinian village, northeast of Ramallah in central West Bank. The settlers invaded large areas of farmlands and orchards, and burnt more than 100 trees, owned by members of the Na'san family. The family said they planted the trees on their own lands more than ten years ago, and has been since then tending to their orchards and fields despite the Israeli restrictions and constant violations, especially since they are in Area C of the occupied West Bank, under full Israeli control. Palestinian firefighters tried to reach the lands, but the Israeli military restrictions prevented them from performing their duties. (IMEMC 8 June 2019)

Israeli Military Orders

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) prevented Palestinian farmers from farming their land near the village of Sebastia, to the north of Nablus in the occupied West Bank. The IOA banned access of local farmers to their own land and threatened them of confiscating their own agricultural machinery if they tried to access it again. Armed settlers and IOA also prevent Palestinian shepherds from herding in the open pastures of the occupied West Bank in order to force them to abandon the area. (Wafa 10 June 2019)
