Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Dozens of journalists suffered from suffocation after inhaling tear gas fired at them by The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) during a solidarity sit-in, held in support of injured photojournalist Moath Amarneh, to the north of the occupied West Bank city of Bethlehem. The IOA fired a barrage of tear gas bombs towards journalists who had organized a sit-in at the northern entrance of Bethlehem city, in solidarity with Amarneh, who lost his left eye after being seriously injured by a metallic bullet fired by an Israeli soldier, in the Surif town, west of Hebron in southern West Bank, where he was covering a protest against land confiscation. Two journalists were detained during the sit-in and one journalist, identified as Monjed Jado, was shot with a gas bomb to his head. One of the detained journalists, identified as Hamad Taqatqa, was moved to Etzion military base and security center, while the second reporter, Ahmad Tannoud, was released a few hours after his detention. The IOA also carried out at least 600 violations against the Palestinian journalists and media outlets, and injured dozens of reporters, including 60 who suffered serious wounds, since the beginning of this year. - The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) shot and seriously injured, a young Palestinian man in Tulkarem, in northern West Bank, after the army prevented many families from entering their orchards to harvest their olive trees. The IOA attacked many Palestinians, and prevented them from entering their olive orchards. The IOA also fired many live rounds at them. One Palestinian was shot with a live Israeli army round and suffered a life-threatening injury. (IMEMC 17 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) shot, a young Palestinian man near the gate of the illegal Annexation Wall, north of Tulkarem, in northern West Bank. The IOA shot the Palestinian with a live round in one of his legs, as he was trying to cross the gate on his way to work. (IMEMC 17 November 2019)
- During a demonstration, organized by Palestinian journalists in solidarity with reporter Moath Amarneh, multiple journalists were injured. Several Palestinian journalists and reporters gathered, in Bethlehem near the 300 Checkpoint, to show their support for Moath Amarneh, the reporter who lost his eye to an Israeli rubber-coated steel bullet while covering clashes in Hebron, on November 15. The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) bombarded the protesters with tear-gas canisters and sound grenades, while the reporters were taking pictures, doing interviews and holding speeches. Among the injured reporters at the demonstration, was the editor-in-chief of Palestine News Network (PNN), Monjed Jado, who was hit directly in the head with a gas canister, shot by the IOA and moved to hospital. Some of the journalists were beaten and arrested by the IOA. (IMEMC 17 November 2019)

Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Silwad town, east of Ramallah, before the IOA stormed and ransacked many homes, and detained three Palestinians, including two children. The two detained Palestinians were identified as Ahmad Ayed Hamed, 13, Jawad Omar Hamed, 13, and Mousa Wael Hamed, 19. (IMEMC 17 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded al-'Arroub refugee camp, north of the southern West Bank city of Hebron, before detained Nadim Abu Jouda. (IMEMC 17 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded the Shiokh town, northeast of Hebron, and summoned Mohammad Yousef Warasna for interrogation in Shiokh town, northeast of Hebron. (IMEMC 17 November 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- About 152 Jewish settlers desecrated the Aqsa Mosque in groups under tight police protection. Israeli police forces escorted different groups of settlers during their tours of the Mosque's courtyards. The settlers included 60 students of religious institutes and 29 government employees. The Aqsa Mosque is exposed to daily desecration by Jewish settlers in the morning and the afternoon except on Fridays and Saturdays. The Israeli police close al-Maghariba Gate, which is used by Jews to enter the Mosque, at 10:30 am after the settlers complete their morning tours at the holy site. Later in the afternoon, the same gate is reopened for evening tours by settlers. during the presence of settlers inside the Mosque compound, entry restrictions are imposed on Muslim worshipers at the entrances leading to the Mosque and their IDs are seized until they leave the holy place. (PALINFO 17 November 2019)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- The Israeli Occupation authorities (IOA) notified for the demolition of a house belonging to a Palestinian resident in the village of Khirbet Susiya, east of Yatta to the south of Hebron, the occupied west bank. The IOA handed local resident Mohammed Zain a demolition notice against his 160-square-meters house. The IOA further photographed residential rooms near Susiya. (WAFA 17 November 2019)
