Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) exiting the city of Hebron after a massive demolition campaign before dawn struck a Palestinian car in which a Palestinian father and son were driving, killing the father and severely injuring the son. Mohammad Nassar Al-Nawajaa, 56, from Yatta city, south of Hebron, was killed and his son Thaer was moderately injured before dawn after their vehicle was hit by an Israeli military bulldozer in the Farsh Al Hawa area on the road leading to Taqoumia town, west of Hebron. The slain man and his son were driving to work in Jerusalem when their car was struck by the Israeli bulldozer. The Israeli military bulldozer that struck their car was returning, along with the army jeeps, to a nearby military base, after demolishing four Palestinian homes in Beit Kahil, north of Hebron. The demolished homes are owned by the families of four detainees, identified as Hamad Aref Asafra, his brother Qassem Saleh Asafra, in addition to Nasseer Saleh Asafra and Yousef Atiya Zohour. - In Nablus, The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) stormed Hisbat Beita town and seized security camera recordings from citizens, with no known reason. (PALINFO 28 November 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained two Palestinian citizens and seized construction equipment in Yatta town, south of al-Khalil. The IOA stormed Yatta town and ordered a halt to the construction of a Palestinian house. The IOA later confiscated a concrete pump from the place and detained two workmen. (PALINFO 28 November 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) banned the Palestinian Minister of Culture, Atef Abu Seif, from entering occupied East Jerusalem. Abu Seif was reportedly stopped by the IOA for two hours at Qalandia checkpoint, at Ramallah-Jerusalem road, and was later told he was not allowed entry into the city. There was no clarification by the IOA on the reason behind the denial of entry of the Palestinian Authority minister. (Wafa 28 November 2019)

Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained two university students from Ramallah and confiscated security camera recordings during a campaign in southern Nablus. The IOA detained two Birzeit University students identified as Mohamed al-Maliki and Harounn Safa at the entrance to Kafr Malik village, northeast of Ramallah. (PALINFO 28 November 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) assaulted, three young Palestinian men, and abducted them, in the al-Waad Street, in the Old City of occupied East Jerusalem. The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) stopped three young men, identified as Abada Najeeb, Mohammad Abu Sneina and Waleed Tuffaha, and started interrogating them while inspecting their ID cards. The IOA assaulted the three Palestinians, and were hurling insults at them, leading to a scuffle, before they were detained. (IMEMC 28 November 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained five young Palestinian men from their homes in the Jenin and Hebron governorates, in the northern and southern parts of the occupied West Bank. In Jenin said several armored military jeeps invaded Jenin refugee camp, before the IOA stormed and ransacked many homes. The IOA detained four Palestinians, identified as Ahmad Mohammad al-Amer, Yazid Ja'absa, in addition to Yazid Abdul-Hadi Saffouri and his brother, Ahmad. (IMEMC 28 November 2019)
- In Tulkarem governorate, in northern West Bank, the Israeli occupation Army (IOA) invaded and ransacked the home of a former political prisoner, identified as Mohammad Naji Sabha, in Anabta town, east of Tulkarem city.
- Several army jeeps invaded the al-'Arroub refugee camp, north of Hebron, searched homes, and detained Khader Mohammad Sharif, 24. (IMEMC 28 November 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) stationed at the Erez (Beit Hanoun) Terminal, in northern Gaza, detained a Palestinian man who was accompanying his ailing brother to a hospital in the occupied West Bank. The IOA detained Mousa Marzouq Abu Taha, 47, from Tal al-Sultan neighborhood, west of Rafah, in the southern part of the Gaza Strip, while he was accompanying his brother who was heading to the West Bank to undergo an eye surgery. The incident took place when the IOA informed

Mousa that he needs to be interviewed at 9 in the morning at the terminal, so that he can obtain a permit to accompany his brother, however, once he went there, he was instantly detained. (IMEMC 28 November 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded, al-Jawareesh area, west of the central West Bank city of Salfit, before uprooting 30 olive trees, in addition to demolishing 150 sustaining walls and several water wells. The IOA uprooted the trees, and carried the demolitions out without prior notice. The demolitions were carried out in 5 Dunams of land owned by a local resident, identified as Abdul-Rahim Yassin. The demolitions took place not long after the Palestinian and his family managed to rehabilitate the land, and planted it with dozens of olive trees. (IMEMC 28 November 2019)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- The Israeli Occupation Army (AIO) demolished a Palestinian home in 'Aseera ash-Shamaliya village, northwest of the northern West Bank city of Nablus. The home, which was still-under-construction, was demolished because the so-called "Civil Administration Office," the executive branch of the illegal Israeli occupation of Palestine, did not recognize the construction permit which was issued by the town council and the Palestinian Authority. The family pleaded with the Civil Administration Office to refrain from demolishing their property, but it went ahead with its orders, under the pretext that the property was built on Area C of the occupied West Bank, under full Israeli control. The demolished property (an area of 200 square meters) is owned by Moammar Hamadna, and was legally built on his own private land, in the as-Sareeh area, southwest of the village. (IMEMC 28 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) demolished, four Palestinian homes in Beit Kahil town, northwest of the southern West Bank city of Hebron; Many military jeeps, accompanied by armored bulldozers, invaded the town, and forced the families out of their homes. The IOA disconnected power and water lines, before proceeding with demolishing the four homes. The army closed the entire area, and prevented the Palestinians, including journalists, from entering it. The demolished homes are owned by the families of four detainees, identified as Hamad Aref Asafra, his brother Qassem Saleh Asafra, in addition to Nasseer Saleh Asafra and Yousef Atiya Zohour. (IMEMC 28 November 2019)

Confiscation & Razing of lands

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) accompanied by bulldozers, invaded Palestinian agricultural lands, west of Bethlehem city, south of occupied Jerusalem in the West Bank, and uprooted them. The military bulldozers uprooted dozens of Dunams of Palestinian agricultural lands, west of Husan village. The lands are privately owned by families from Husan in al-Sillam area.
