Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Dozens of Palestinian citizens were injured when Israeli occupation Army (IOA) violently quelled the weekly Great March of Return protests near Gaza border. 69 Palestinians were injured by Israeli gunfire and tear gas bombs. Thousands of Palestinians marched on the 82nd Friday of the Great March of Return along the border between the Gaza Strip and the 1948 occupied Palestinian territories. The Gaza Strip Palestinians on 30 March 2018 launched the Great March of Return to demand the right of return for refugees and call for ending the 13-year-long blockade on the coastal enclave. Since the border protests started, the IOA have killed 328 Palestinians and injured around 32,000. (PALINFO 8 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded al-'Isawiya town in occupied East Jerusalem, and shot a woman with a rubber-coated steel bullet in her head, before detaining her teenage boy. The IOA attacked many Palestinians, who were protesting the invasion into the area of a local mosque, especially after the IOA stormed and searched stores and homes. The IOA fired rubber-coated steel bullets, gas bombs and concussion grenades at random, injuring a woman with a rubber-coated steel bullet in her head, before detaining her teenage son, Amir Karim Hweih. The woman was moved to Hadassah Medical Center in Jerusalem, while her son was taken to a detention facility in the occupied city. (PALINFO, IMEMC 8 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained a former political prisoner, identified as Mohammad Ibrahim Abu Mariya, 24, after stopping him at a sudden military roadblock, near the al-Arroub refugee camp, north of Hebron, in southern West Bank. The detained Palestinian is from Beit Ummar town, north of the Hebron; the soldiers took him to nearby military base. (IMEMC 8 November 2019)
- Israeli gunboats fired live ammunition and water cannons at the fishermen and their boats as they were working off the shore of Rafah last night. Naval forces aboard the gunboats detained two fishermen after encircling their boat and confiscating it. (PALINFO 8 November 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli settlers, stole an olive harvest belonging to Palestinian farmers in the village of al-Lubban al-Sharqiya, to the south of the northern West Bank city of Nablus. A number of Israeli settlers from the nearby illegal settlement of Elieh had stolen the harvest of about 900 of their olive trees. (MEMC 8 November 2019)
- Israeli settlers from Halamish settlement shattered six olive trees in the village of Um Safs, to the west of Ramallah in the occupied West Bank. Settlers broke into a grove planted with olives in the village, before shattering six trees which belong to two brothers from the village. (Wafa 8 November 2019)
- Israeli settlers sneaked their way into the village of Hizma, about five kilometres to the northeast of Jerusalem, and punctured the tires of about 20 Palestinian-owned vehicles. The settlers sneaked their way into the village, punctured the tires of parked vehicles and spray-painted racist graffiti and slogans on vehicles and houses. (PALINFO, Wafa 8 November 2019)
