Israeli Violations' Activities in the occupied State of Palestine

10 September 2021

The daily report highlights the violations behind Israeli home demolitions and demolition threats in the occupied Palestinian territory, the confiscation and razing of lands, the uprooting and destruction of fruit trees, the expansion of settlements and erection of outposts, the brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army, the Israeli settlers violence against Palestinian civilians and properties, the erection of checkpoints, the construction of the Israeli segregation wall and the issuance of military orders for the various Israeli purposes.

The Violations are based on reports provided by field workers and/or news sources.

The text is not quoted directly from the sources but is edited for clarity.

The daily report does not necessarily reflect ARIJ's opinion.

This DAILY REPORT is prepared as part of the project entitled ASSESSING THE IMPEDIMENTS BEFORE THE TWO-STATE SOLUTION, which is financially supported by the EU. However, the content of this presentation is the sole responsibility of ARIJ & LRC and does not necessarily reflect those of the donors.

Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- In Nablus, in northern West Bank, the Israeli occupation Army (IOA) injured 174 Palestinians, including many who were shot with the rubber-coated steel bullets, in addition to those who suffered fractures and bruises after the army attacked processions in several parts of the governorate. The injuries took place when the IOA attacked protesters in Beita, Osarin, and Huwwara, south of Nablus, in addition to Beit Dajan, east of the city. Four Palestinians were shot with rubber-coated steel bullets, four suffered burns due to gas bombs and concussion grenades, in addition to thirty suffered the effects of tear gas inhalation near Huwwara military roadblock, close to Huwwara village. Eighteen Palestinians, including one journalist, were shot with rubber-coated steel bullets, 97 suffered the effects of tear gas inhalation, and 18 suffered burns and bruises, during protests in Sbeih Mountain in Beita town. Two other Palestinians were shot with rubber-coated steel bullets in Osarin village, and one in Beit Dajan. It is worth mentioning that the IOA fired gas bombs at two ambulances belonging to the Palestinian Red Crescent Society (PRCS) and the Palestinian Medical Relief Society (PMRS), causing damage. (IMEMC 10 September 2021)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) injured four Palestinians and caused dozens to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation, in Kufur Qaddoum east of the northern West Bank city of Qalqilia, during the weekly processions. Dozens of Palestinians marched towards the town's blockaded main road before the IOA started firing at them. The IOA shot three young men with rubber-coated steel bullets, and caused many others to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation.
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) attacked Palestinian protesters at the northern road of Azzoun town east of the northern West Bank city of Qalqilia, and fired many rubber-coated steel bullets and gas bombs at them, wounding a young man with a rubber-coated steel bullet. The Israeli army also installed many roadblocks on all roads leading to Qalqilia city and surrounding villages and towns, leading to protests. (IMEMC 10 September 2021)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli settlers uprooted dozens of olive saplings in Wad al-Hajjar area, west of Kisan village, east of Bethlehem, in the occupied West Bank. Israeli settlers came from the Abei Hanahal settlement and uprooted at least 50 olive saplings in an orchard, owned by a local farmer, identified as Ayyoub Yousef Obeyyat. (IMEMC 10 September 2021)
