Israeli Settler Violence

- Dozens of Israeli settlers stormed Al-Aqsa Mosque from the Magharaba Gate amid escalating extremist calls for carrying out large-scale raids into the mosque during the upcoming Jewish holidays. The police and their special units have deployed in big numbers since the morning in Al-Aqsa Mosque and at its gates to provide full protection for the settlers' incursions. 32 settlers stormed Al-Aqsa Mosque during the morning period and wandered in its courtyards amid attempts to perform Talmudic rituals in the mosque and on the eastern side of it. Meanwhile, Israeli police continue to impose restrictions on the entry of Palestinians into Al-Aqsa, as well as cracking down on the mosque's guards and endowment employees. The Israeli occupation soldiers closed the Magharaba Gate, which is located inside the western wall of the Al-Aqsa Mosque from the south, after they allowed dozens of settlers to storm the holy Islamic site.
