Violations of the Israeli Occupation Army

- At least 83 Palestinian were injured after Israeli occupation army (IOA) violently suppressed anti-settlement weekly protests in Nablus towns. Palestinian Red Crescent Society reported 5 rubber bullet injuries during the clashes in Beita town. A foreign peace activist was among the injured. Furthermore, 62 suffered from tear gas inhalation and two burn injuries were also recorded in the town due to the (IOA) assault. (PALINFO 13 November 2021)

Israeli Settler Violence

- A Palestinian young man sustained injuries from gunfire today after he was shot by an Israeli settler in the occupied Jerusalem neighborhood of Ras Al-Amud. Israeli settlers accompanied by an Israeli Police escort broke into the neighborhood, and that one of the settlers who was armed with a rifle opened gunfire at Palestinian civilians there, injuring one of them in his hand. The wounded young man was moved to hospital for medical treatment. (MEMC 13 November 2021)
