Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- Israeli soldiers invaded Palestinian farmlands in Khan Younis, in the southern part of the Gaza Strip. Media sources said several army vehicles, including bulldozers, invaded the Palestinian lands near the fence, east of the al-Qarara town, northeast of Khan Younis, in the southern part of the Gaza Strip. They added that the soldiers bulldozed lands, installed sand hills near the perimeter fence, and fired many live rounds and smoke bombs while Israeli drones flew overhead. (IMEMC 29 June 2022)
- Israeli navy ship fired a missile at a Palestinian fishing boat near the shore of Rafah, in the southern part of the Gaza Strip. The boat was just six nautical miles from the shore of Rafah when the navy fired a missile at it and destroyed it. The fishermen jumped out of their boat before the navy fired a missile at it and destroyed it. The boat was within the fishing zone allotted for the Palestinians to sail and fish in the Gaza Strip. - Israeli soldiers killed a young Palestinian man in Jenin, in the northern part of the occupied West Bank. The soldiers shot and killed Mohammad Maher Nafe' Mer'ey, 25, from the Jenin refugee camp, during protests that took place after the army invaded Jenin. Mohammad was shot with several live rounds in the heart and abdomen and later succumbed to serious wounds, despite all efforts to revive him. The Israeli soldiers also shot another Palestinian. Furthermore, the soldiers occupied rooftops of tall buildings in Jenin and the Jenin refugee camp and used them as firing posts for their sharpshooters. The soldiers abducted Yahia Yousef Aref

Jaber, 23, and Ahmad As'ad Abdul-Halim Nabhan, 26, from their homes in Jenin. (IMEMC 29 June 2022)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli soldiers and illegal colonizers invaded the Khirbat Samra village in the northern Plains of the occupied West Bank and photographed several residential structures. The soldiers and colonizers from the “Regional Council of Settlement” invaded the village and took pictures of several structures. Many colonizers invaded the community and tried to smash locks of several structures. (IMEMC 29 June 2022)
- Israeli forces and settlers today assaulted activists participating in an olive-tree-planting activity in lands threatened with confiscation in Masafer Yatta in the South Hebron Hills, south of the occupied West Bank. Large groups of settlers from the illegal Israeli settlement of Susya, as well as Israeli soldiers, assaulted activists as they were holding an activity to plant olive trees in lands threatened with confiscation in Masafer Yatta. The lands belong to the families of al-Harini and al-Daajnah, adding that the settlers and soldiers physically and verbally assaulted them using offensive and racist slurs. The activists were successful in removing a tent that was previously established by settlers on the land in preparation for seizing it. (IMEMC 29 June 2022)
- Jewish settlers terrorized Palestinian children in the occupied West Bank city of Hebron. Arij Jaabari, who is in charge of a summer camp for children, stated that while children were taking part in a field trip to the Ibrahimi Mosque, a group of Jewish settlers harassed them, cursing them with foul and racist words and scaring them with their dogs. The children were gravely terrified and that Israeli soldiers in the area did not intervene to stop the settlers. (PC, Wafa 29 June 2022)

House Demolition and Demolition Threats

- Israeli soldiers demolished seven Palestinian structures, including barns, near Anata town, east of the occupied capital, Jerusalem, in the West Bank. The soldiers demolished four sheds and three barns owned by Palestinians from the local al-Karshan family. The demolished structures on privately-owned Palestinian lands are in the Wa'ar al-Baik area near the bypass road between Anata and Za'ayem towns. (IMEMC 29 June 2022)

- Israeli soldiers destroyed and removed Palestinian fruit and vegetable stands near the al-Jalama military roadblock, north of Jenin in the northern part of the occupied West Bank. The soldiers attacked the Palestinians before destroying and removing their fruits and vegetables stands on both sides of the road near the military roadblock. The stands are the only sources of livelihood for dozens of Palestinian farmers and their families. The Israeli army repeatedly attacks and destroys Fruit and Vegetable stands on main roads near Jenin, Hebron, and many other parts of the West Bank. (IMEMC 29 June 2022)

Others

- The Israeli government filed papers to register a swath of land adjacent to the Al-Aqsa Mosque, in a move which Palestinians say is a blatant attempt to take over and surround the mosque, with the objective of taking over the mosque completely. The Al-Aqsa Mosque represents the third-holiest site for the one billion Muslims worldwide, as it is believed by Muslims to be the place where the Prophet Mohammad ascended into heaven. In what Palestinians are calling a particularly cynical move, Israeli authorities are using funds earmarked for improving the lives of Palestinians in Jerusalem to essentially confiscate land belonging to Palestinians, and take it over for Israel — forcing the Palestinians out. According to the Israeli newspaper Ha'aretz, "The first step in the registration process is the issuance of a public notice to anyone claiming ownership in the area where registration is being carried out, requiring that claimants provide proof of ownership. But for the most part, Jerusalem Palestinians have refused to cooperate out of concern that the Custodian for Absentee Property might claim ownership of all or a portion of it. The law permits the custodian to seize property if it is registered to someone who is or was residing in an enemy country. "In the last two years, following a 2018 cabinet decision, the official in charge of land registration in Jerusalem, David Rotenberg, began the registration process for a number of parcels in the east of the city. This prompted questions from human rights groups in Jerusalem, planning organizations and Ir Amim, an Israeli nonprofit whose stated mission is to make Jerusalem a more “equitable and sustainable city for the Israelis and Palestinians who share it.” But Palestinians in Jerusalem have pointed out that this ‘registration process’ over the past two years has resulted in the confiscation of half of the Palestinian land in the Sheikh Jarrah neighborhood by Israeli authorities, in order to rid the land of its Palestinian residents and take it over for Israel. Palestinian leaders have called this bureaucratic takeover of East Jerusalem a de facto ethnic cleansing of the Palestinian indigenous population. Israeli authorities have worked over the last several years to take over all the land surrounding the Al-Aqsa Mosque, with some Israeli officials openly stating that the plan is to encircle the mosque, then take it over and destroy it. According to Ha’aretz, “As part of the process, the land at the Ophel Archaeological Park, which lies between the City of David National Park and the wall of the Temple Mount, is also being entered in the land registry. “The registration process in the area could spark protests from the Waqf, the Muslim religious trust that administers the mosque compound, and from the Palestinians and the Jordanians, among others.” (IMEMC 29 June 2022)
