Violations of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Israeli navy ships attacked Palestinian fishing boat in Palestinian territorial waters in the northern part of the besieged Gaza Strip. The navy also surrounded the boat, owned by Palestinians from the local Al-Habeel, for more than thirty minutes, before allowing the fishermen to leave. (IMEMC 22 September 2022)
- Israeli soldiers shot and seriously injured a young Palestinian man and abducted him near Nablus, in the northern West Bank, after the army claimed he carried out a ramming attack; Palestinian witnesses said the incident was a traffic accident. The entire incident was just a traffic accident between a Palestinian and an Israeli military vehicle, and that the soldiers chose to open fire because he was a Palestinian and added that one soldier was slightly injured. After shooting the young man, the soldiers repeatedly assaulted him despite his wounds and abducted him before taking him to an unknown destination. Following the incident, dozens of colonizers invaded Huwwara and attacked Palestinians, their shops, and their cars, in addition to isolating the town. (IMEMC 22 September 2022)
- Israeli soldiers killed a Palestinian in Modi'in Illit illegal colony, built on stolen Palestinian lands west of Ramallah, in the central part of the occupied West Bank. The slain Palestinian has been identified as Mohammad Osama Abu Jom'a, 23, from the at-Tour town in occupied Jerusalem. The Palestinian mildly injured eight Israeli colonizers after he allegedly "lunged at a car, tried to open its doors and attacked the Israelis with a knife and pepper spray." They alleged that two "Israelis were stabbed and suffered light wounds, and six were maced with pepper spray before an off-duty police officer who happened to be in the area fatally shot the Palestinian." Israeli medical sources said the injured Israelis were all treated by medics at the scene due to their mild wounds. (IMEMC 22 September 2022)
- Israeli soldiers abducted a Palestinian judge and his brother in a town west of Hebron, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank. Several army jeeps invaded Taffouh town, west of Hebron, and abducted a District Court

- Judge, Bassam Abdul-Karim Ezreiqat, and his brother Essam, after storming their homes and ransacking them. The soldiers interrogated the two Palestinians while searching their homes and took them to an unknown destination. The soldiers also installed roadblocks in several parts of the Hebron governorate, stopped and searched many cars, and interrogated the Palestinians while inspecting their ID cards. (IMEMC 22 September 2022)
- Israeli soldiers fired live rounds at Palestinian farmers and a sanitation truck in the central and the southern part of the besieged Gaza Strip. The soldiers fired many live rounds and gas bombs into Palestinian farmlands east of Deir Al-Balah, in central Gaza, forcing the farmers to leave. The soldiers, stationed across the perimeter fence, east of Khan Younis, in the southern part of the Gaza Strip, fired sporadic rounds of live ammunition and high-velocity gas bombs at the sanitation truck driving east of Khuza'a town. (IMEMC 22 September 2022)
 - The Israeli occupation forces (IOF) attacked several Palestinian citizens in the east of Deir al-Balah in central Gaza. Israeli soldiers behind the border fence fired a volley of tear gas canisters at groups of farmers, shepherds and bird hunters in fields in the east of Deir al-Balah. The IOF attack forced the citizens to leave the area and return home. Under an inhumane siege, the Israeli army keeps attacking – sometimes injuring or killing – farmers and fishermen almost on a daily basis, with no regard for any ceasefire understandings over Gaza or even the international law. (PALINFO 22 September 2022)

 - Three Palestinians were injured by Israeli gunfire this evening, including a disabled person, during confrontations with Israeli occupation forces in the town of Beit Ummar, to the north of Hebron. An Israeli army force stormed the neighborhood of Al-Dahr in the town, sparking clashes with residents. The soldiers fired live ammunition and rubber-coated rounds at the protesters, injuring Jihad Fayez Salibi, 24, a disabled Palestinian man, with a shot in his foot while he was standing in front of his home. Israeli soldiers assaulted and beat up Shadia Saber Abu Rajab, 37, after raiding her home in the Al-Salaymeh neighborhood in Hebron, causing her bruises. The attacking soldiers permanently shut down one of the two main doors of their home, forcing his seven-member household to walk for more than one hour to reach the neighboring Old City quarter of Hebron, while in normal times it would only take a few minutes. Israeli Settler Violence

- Scores of Jewish settlers desecrated the Aqsa Mosque in Occupied Jerusalem in the morning and later in the afternoon. At least 386 settlers entered the Mosque in different groups through its Maghariba Gate and toured its courtyards under tight police guard, according to al-Qastal news website. During their tours at the Islamic holy site, the settlers received lectures from rabbis about the alleged temple mount and a number of them provocatively performed Talmudic prayers. Another group of settlers performed dances and Talmudic rituals, including blowing the trumpet at Al-Ghanima and King Al-Faisal gates. In recent days, the Israeli occupation has accelerated its attempts to Judaize and control the al-Aqsa Mosque taking advantage of the Jewish religious festivals. Scores of settlers were allowed to storm the holy compound and perform religious rituals at

 - As Jewish fanatics plan, starting early next week, mass break-ins into the holy Muslim compound, Al-Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem's Old City. Men were also detained over the past week and then released with an order not to be inside the Muslim holy compound for weeks or months at a time. At the same time, Israeli police stationed at the gates leading to Al-Aqsa compound prevented Muslim worshippers from entering it at one of the gates without giving a reason for their action. (WAFSA 22 September 2022)
